Robeson County
Roots, Shoots, and Blooms Tour!
Thursday, June 17, 2010
8:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Come join us for a unique 6-stop tour that will get you back to your roots, learn about shoots that have sprouted from agriculture, and see what has bloomed from the agritourism industry in Robeson County.

Tour stops include:
- Geraldine’s Peaches and Produce
- Stephens Winery
- Uncle Jeff’s Produce Honor System
- RWL Farms - corn, soybeans, and wheat
- Floyd Farms - strawberries and poultry
- Marietta Daylily Gardens

We will visit a local “movie-shooting” location, try homemade wines, witness a truly unique business system, visit a blooming farm with over 120 daylily varieties, and much more all right here in Robeson County!

The tour will leave from the O. P. Owens Agriculture Center.

Preregistration and payment is required by June 7, 2010.

Cost for the full-day tour (including lunch) is $25 per person. Make checks payable to Robeson County Cooperative Extension.
